Camp Description:

This camp is geared to teach wrestlers technique in the neutral position. Wrestlers will learn to become better on their feet in areas such as takedown set-ups & finishes, hand-fighting, defense, and throws. Wrestlers will be able to test their new skills with live situational wrestling during every session. There will be two, 2 hour sessions every day, with each day focusing on a different facet of the neutral position. There is a limited number of wrestlers to allow each camp member to receive the proper amount of attention.

Accommodations: (Included in the cost of the camp)

- Wrestlers will stay in the Four Diamond McCamly Plaza Hotel, rated one of Michigan's ten best hotels, which is connected to Kellogg Arena.
- Food will be provided for breakfast lunch and dinner, starting with dinner on June 14, and ending with lunch on June 16.
- Wrestlers will receive a Boudro Camps t-shirt.
- Wrestlers with college wrestling experience will be hired as Camp Counselors for intense instructional help, and supervision.
